Preamble

This Policy outlines the CITC's collection, use and disclosure of individual's information as per the Privacy Act and other relevant legislation. CITC's action and response to each aspect of the 13 Australian Privacy Principles (APP's) is addressed in this policy.

The CITC is committed to ensuring that all staff, trainers, contractors, subcontractors and clients are aware of what happens to information collected, how it is used and if it is disclosed.

The CITC recognises that information about an individual whose identity is apparent, or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion is personal information.

The CITC is not only committed to ensuring that all legislative requirements are met but to maintaining a position of excellence in its handling of personal information.

The CITC operates under the Standards for RTO's 2015, Commonwealth, State/Territory legislation and regulatory requirements, as recognition of its legal obligations as an educational institution to provide a high level of Vocational Education Training in a fair, efficient and effective manner. See CITC 10.12 External Documents, Legislation, Regulations and Policies for details.

Scope

The Construction Industry Training Centre is committed to protecting your privacy in accordance with the requirements of the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988, incorporating the 13 Australian Privacy Principles. This act requires us to communicate to our students how we will protect their privacy.

Personal Information.

The CITC will keep on file personal information such as your name, residential and postal address, date of birth, contact telephone numbers, email address, occupation, employer, education, qualifications, bank account details if applicable and academic records and results and statistical data as required under the Standards for RTO's 2015. For some students, we will also keep on file their information about special learning requirements and needs.

This information will be disclosed to us through your completion of the course enrolment form, by discussion with any of our administration/enrolment officers or via written communication to the Centre from you.

So that we are able to provide you with a quality educational service, we recommend that you advise us of any changes to your personal information or if there are any errors in the personal information we have on file. We may also update your personal information from information we receive from the organisations listed below under the section 'Disclosure of Personal Information to Third Parties'.

How we use your personal information

Your personal information may be used to:

- Provide you with the educational service you require to successfully complete your course
- Obtain feedback from you about the course, service and facilities we have provided.
- Administer and manage these services including billing and collecting debts.
- Report data to external organisations as laid out in the section 'Disclosure of Personal Information to Third Parties'.

The Construction Industry Training Centre will hold your personal information for a period up to 30 years.

Disclosure of Personal Information to Third Parties

For the purposes set out above, we may disclose your personal information to the following organisations:

Service providers who assist with managing the services we provide to you including information technology, educational services, marketing and debt recovery.

These include:

- CONTRACTED TRAINING COMPANIES
  - In the event that the course you have booked on is delivered by a training company contracted by and in conjunction with the CITC, we are required to forward your personal information to that company.

In addition, we may also be required to forward your information to one or more of the applicable agencies listed below.

- SAFEWORk SA
- WORKCOVER CORPORATION
- CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY TRAINING BOARD (CITB)
- EMPLOYER or AGENCY (EMPLOYER or AGENCY INITIATED BOOKING ONLY)
