

CITC Modern Slavery Statement

At the Construction Industry Training Centre (CITC) we are committed to preventing and eliminating all forms of modern slavery, including human trafficking, forced labor, and other exploitative practices. We believe in upholding the highest standards of human rights, dignity, and ethical conduct in all our operations and across our supply chains.

Whilst the CITC does meet the required reporting criteria we have a zero-tolerance approach towards modern slavery in all its forms. This includes practices such as forced labor, child labor, and human trafficking.

Our commitments:

- 1. Compliance and Accountability: The CITC are aware of all relevant laws and regulations concerning modern slavery and human trafficking.
- 2. Supply Chain Due Diligence: The CITC undertake due diligence on our suppliers and partners to ensure they share our commitment to combating modern slavery.
- 3. Continuous Improvement: The CITC will monitor and ensure commitment to zero tolerance by ensuring our statement meets the current expectations required.

We believe that eradicating modern slavery is not only a legal obligation but a moral imperative. We are dedicated to creating a working environment that respects and upholds the rights and dignity of every individual, and we expect the same commitment from all those who work with us.
